MRS. CLEVELAND OPENS A HOP. [BY TELEGRA; H TO THE HERALD.]

LAREWOOD, N. J., Feb. 7, 1891,-Ex-President Cleveland arrived here at six o'clock to-night. A carriage was waiting for him at the station and he was driven at once to the Lakewood Hotel. He was received by Colonel H. S. Cleurent, Mrs. Cleveland has been here since last Tuesday.
Mrs. Cleveland opened the first full dress hop of the season to-night at the hotel.

GRIDIRON CLUB DINNER. WASHINGTON, Feb. 7, 1891.—The special festivity of the Gridiron Club, known as its "annual" dinner, took place to-night at the Arlingand passed off with even more éclas brilliancy than usual. Witty, inforand brilliancy than usual. Witty, informal speechmaking by the guests, and vocalization by the members (who had provided a number of now topical songs for the occasion), and the initiation of several "infant" members were the features of the evening.

Among the prominent guests were Senator Stewart, Senator Gorman, Senator Faulkner, Russell B. Harris R. Representatives Cannon, Orlsp. W. L. Wilson, Butterworth, W. C. P. Breckinridge, Doliver, Allen, of Mississippi; Boatner, Gibson, Walkace, Bynum, Evans, Peters, Grosvenor, Boutelle, Caruth and Adams: Solicitor General Taft, Mr. George Aifred Townsend, Mr. Charles O'B. Cowardin, General Greely, Mr. George W. Boyd and Mr. W. H. Rapley.

BLACK-CHURCH.

Washington, Feb. 7, 1891.-The marriage of Isabel C. Church, of New York, daughter of Frederic E. Church, the painter, to Jero S. Black, of Pennsylvania, son of Chauncey F. Black and grandson of the late Jeremiah S. Black and the late John Littleton Dawson, was privately celebrated in this city this evening. DAVIS-ARMS | RONG.

Miss Isabel Deborah Armstrong, daughter of Andrew C. Armstrong, was married yesterday at five o'clock to Dr. John E. L. Davis, maids.

Little S. Howard Armstrong was the page and sarried the bride's bouquet.

R. E. L. Cochran was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Foster, F. Crumbie, Wylle and Dr. Giifillian. A large reception followed the cere-

PACHMANN'S REQUEST CONCERT.

The interest in the De Pachmann Chopin recitals still continues unabated. At yesterday's "request" recital Chickering Hall was packed to the doors despite the weather.

"The Marche Fun. bre" wasjamounced upon the programme without an accompanying first bar of the missic, and was omitted by M. do Pachmann. As soon, however, as his attention was called to the omission he returned to the piano and played the march with exquisite grace and charm.

At the completion of the afternoon's programme he received, as usual, a double recall and played two additional numbers, another value of Chopin's and the Schumann novelette in E.

M. de Pachmann has decided to give another Chopin recital on Saturday afternoon.

ITALIAN FENCING CLUB CONCERT.

An enjoyable concert was given last evening by the Italian Fencing Club, a company or young gen tlemen having pleasant quarters in East Fifteenth street. Vocal and instrumental music, interspersed with bouts with foils and sabre thrusts, filled up a couple of hours most pleasantly, and dancing foi-

A band of five mandolins, mandola and piano was an entertaining feature, and a chorus of fiteen mixed voices sang a selection called "Funciola, Funciola" with good effect.

HOYT & THOMAS THEATRE.

It was said on good authority last night that the new theatre which the Sire Brothers are about to build on the northwest corner of Broadway and Forty-first street will come upon completion under the management of Messrs. Hoyt & Thomas. Their partner in the venture is said to be Mr. An-drew Freedman, the real estate broker who man-aged the deal which placed the Academy of Music in the hands of Messrs, Gilmore & Tompkins.

BABES DEMANDING MONEY.

Before the matinee of "Babes in the Wood" as Niblo's yesterday the principals in the pantomime made a demand on the management for their salaries. On the promise that they would be paid in full on Tuesday in Beston they went on with the performance. In the evening the ballet demanded a full week's pay before go ng on, and when the curtain finally went up it was on the second act, the first being omitted. After the performance the girls lingered around the theatre and it was some time before they went away.

successively and finally knocked out by a Mariborough man named Jennings.

A complaint was made against Ryan at Mariborough on Tuesday morning and the following night he was brought back from Brocklyn by Policeman Scott, of the former place. Byan had with him a recommendation from the captain of his precinct in Brocklyn, saying that he was an efficient policeman and had never before been known to be in such an affair while on the force.

INSANE OR A HOAX?

QUEER STORY OF A RIDGEFIELD (CONN.) MAN AND HIS DISAPPEARANCE.

INY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD. RIDGEFIELD, Conn., Feb. 7, 1891.—Charles F. Pearson, who left this place very mysteriously four weeks ago, was heard from yesterday. His wife received a letter purporting to have been sent by the authorities of Liverpool, England, informing her that he was detained in an asylum for the insane awaiting her orders. He was identified, the letter claims, by papers in his possession. His ravings were unintelligible to the authorities. Pearson is a tall, well built Englishman, with dark hair and mustache, who came to this village about hair and mustache, who came to this village about four years ago. He married a Ridgefield woman and had appeared to lead the life of a quiet, industrious man. He left town about the middle of last month, telling his wife he was going to New York for two or three days on business and to visit friends.

Mrs. Pearson became alarmed when her husband did not return inside of a week, and she went to New York in search of him. She found that he had collected and borrowed a large sum of money from various New York people who reside in Ridgefield during the summer, but Pearson's subsequent whereabouts were a mystery until the intelligence was received of his alleged insanity. He was heavily in debt to the storekeepers and others here, and it is believed by them that the story of his alleged insanity is a hoga written by one of his English friends to create sympathy.

Some people think there is truth in the letter, insanuch as Pearson was hurt on the head a few menths ago, from the effects of which he had acted unlike himself.

SAD SEQUEL TO A SAD EVENT.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD. BURLINGTON, Iowa, Feb. 7, 1891.-Colonel W. B. Culbertson, a leading lawyer of this city, died this morning aged sixty-seven years.

At his bedside was Mrs. Erastus Chamberlain, mother of Mr. Culbertson's law partner, Mr. Frank Chamberlain. She was so affected that she died in a short time.

Mrs. Henry Wiman, who was also present, was similarly affected and now lies at the point of
